Forknell Accepts Communications Manager Position at American Crystal

Belinda Forknell has accepted the position of Communications Manager at American Crystal Sugar Company's Corporate Headquarters.

In this position, Forknell will create and manage communications for both internal and external audiences. She will work to increase public awareness and further develop a favorable image with shareholders, employees, and the communities in American Crystal's operating geography. Forknell was most recently at Bobcat Company and has over 25 years of experience in the communications field. She holds an associate degree in Commercial Art from Bismarck State College and a bachelor's degree in Communications from the University of North Dakota.

American Crystal is a grower-owned cooperative and the nation's largest beet sugar producer with operating facilities in Moorhead, Crookston and East Grand Forks, Minn.; Hillsboro and Drayton, ND; and Sidney, MT.
